

EDUCATION

COLLEGE CHOICE – THE RIGHT COLLEGE FOR YOU

Name of College/University/School: _____

- College/school type (2, 4, master, doctorate; Internet classes; specialized programs—nursing, computer programmer, etc.)
- Campus community (tight-knit; social interaction)
- Campus activities (sports; music; specialty groups)
- Campus life (quiet; party; special groups)
- Campus size (big, small or somewhere in between)
- Curriculum (are all classes available when needed; offers that fill all my needs)
- Financial aid availability
- Food availability (available on campus; grocery store nearby)
- Food costs
- Graduation rates (what percentage of students graduate)
- Housing availability (what does college provide; am I on my own to find housing)
- Housing location (on campus; need transportation to and from; can I live at home)
- Housing costs
- Job placement services (services offered and percentage placed)
- Location (heart of a city, suburbs, country or area of a country)
- Religious affiliated
- Safety and Security (crime statistics; school security/emergency plans)
- Student character (friendly; reserved)
- Student to faculty ratio (maximum students per class)
- Teaching staff (award winners; level of education)
- Transportation available (going home; to work; shopping)
- Tuition and other costs
- Types of academic programs (specific to a field or general)
- Working while going to school (does the college offer part-time jobs; is the school close to employment)